Rakhine is open for business to the world

Rakhine State is located in a key geo-strategic area, at the bank of Bay of Bengal, which opens the door to trading opportunities. Kyaukphyu Special Economic Zone and Deep Sea-port Project is under planning and Kaladan Multimodal Transport Project is now underway.

Rakhine State has rich farmlands and marine resources that constitute prospective thriving sectors for investments in the region. There are huge potentials in agriculture, livestock farming and fisheries industries.

Rakhine State is rich in beaches, islands, cultural and historical sites with undeniable potentials for tourism. Ngapali Beach is one of the Myanmar's premier beach destinations which achieved the Travelers' Choice Award from Trip Advisor as one of the world's best beaches in 2018. There are natural virgin beaches in Gwa Township and Man Aung Island. Mrauk-U, the ancient capital of Rakhine State, is recognized as a World Heritage Area which can attract numerous tourists.

Rakhine State also has huge potentials in petroleum and natural gas production. Currently, there are some large-scale projects in offshore oil & gas explorations.

Rakhine State Investment Opportunity Survey Report will be delivered at the fair.

To promote private investments in line with Rakhine State Economic Development Plan, Rakhine State Government (RSG) and Myanmar Investment Commission (MIC) have planned to hold the Rakhine State Investment Fair, co-organized by Japan International Co-operation Agency (JICA) and Japan External Trade Organization (JETRO) and supported by Myanmar Survey Research (MSR), Parami Energy, Mango Media, Blue Ocean and JTB Polestar.
