1. General statement

Sections 271 and 272 of the Myanmar Companies Law 2017 provides that the Union Minister may appoint one or more competent inspectors to investigate the affairs of any company and to report thereon in such manner as the Union Minister may direct. Section 276(a) of the Myanmar Companies Law 2017 provides that upon the conclusion of the investigation the inspectors shall report their opinion to the Union Minister, and a copy of the report shall be forwarded by the Union Minister to the Registrar.

Sections 277(a) of the Myanmar Companies Law 2017 provides that if from any report made under section 271 or 272, it appears to the Union Minister on reasonable grounds that any person has been guilty of any offence in relation to the company under this Law or another applicable law, the Ministry shall seek the advice of the Union Attorney-General's Office.

Section 277(b) of the Myanmar Companies Law 2017 states that if the Union Attorney-General's Office advises that the case is one in which a prosecution ought to be instituted, the Registrar shall cause proceedings to be instituted, and it shall be the duty of all directors, officers and agents of the company, past and present (other than the accused in the proceedings), to give all assistance in connection with the prosecution which they are reasonably able to give.

2. Legal proceedings

A copy of the legal proceedings brought by the Registrar in respect of this company is attached to this Notice.
